

NEGROES ORGANIZE

To Support the Fight for the Southern University.

Five hundred representatives of the negro labor, benevolent and fraternal organizations of the near-by parishes met in Longshoremen's Hall on last Tuesday to arrange for co-operation in the protection of Southern University through the courts.

Addresses were made by Alexander Paul, E. O. Moss, S. Davidson, of Donaldsonville; Charles I. Ross, M. G. Bobe, J. J. Jones, J. H. White, T. Lacals, Homer Seavy, T. R. Hickerson and other leaders.

The delegates passed appropriate resolutions and pledged financial help in the injunction suit now on to uphold the State Constitution with regard to Southern University.
